Sunday 2:45 AM

Calvary greetings ...

... and welcome to the 9 Mistakes Report.

Every day my inbox is bombarded with emails of heartbreak, distress and frustration.

Today is no exception.

Within 5 minutes of opening my emails I saw these 3 staring me in the face... out of thousands of other emails in my overcrowded inbox.

Distress Email #1:

Tears All Over

I am in a great distress, tears are running like a river. I would like to control it but this is too much. The man who proposed to marry me told me that his uncle had finally got for him another woman. I am dying. I really don't know what to do and I have nowhere to turn my head. Please tell me what to do...

Distress Email #2:

Emotionally Overwhelmed

On the 19th of February my boyfriend / fiancé whom we have been in a 5-year relationship broke up with me over the phone out the blues together with a woman he has been cheating on me with. She did all the talking and claimed to be the wife, saying they have a child and another on the way. He confirmed all this as true by his silence. I was convinced it's completely over but I came across the 21 days relationship prayer. I had prayed these prayer points for 11 days but I have skipped some days because I felt too discouraged. I persisted all the same and completed the prayers. No sign of an apology or reconciliation and all this is getting to me emotionally to a point I feel like I can't go on.

My questions: how do I press on to get him back because I truly love him and believe we were ordained to be together and it's my wish to God that we would get back together and not waste any more time without getting married and that God would deliver him from the spirit of infidelity. Are there other stronger prayers for relationship restoration? If there are please advise accordingly.

Distress Email #3

"Beautiful and Intelligent...
But Sometimes I Wish for Death"

I'm at the end of the road! I did the Prayer Academy in 2013. I had a job then on contract. Now I'm jobless since 2014 September. My life has been one of shame and disgrace since even before I got the job. I'm a single mother of 2, a girl of 22 and a boy of 16. I even did the program twice with all the fasting. I think there is some people that God doesn't listen to. I'm beautiful, intelligent and actually look about 15 years younger. No job, no husband, no friends, yet I pray like the world is ending tomorrow. Sometimes I wish for death! I will be 41 in October. Please help.

Desperate.

It is because of hundreds of emails like these that the pdf you're reading now is being re-issued. It is an updated version of a popular free report that has been on our websites for the past 7 years. However, I have a feeling that so many people have never read it.

Why so much distress when it comes to relationships?

Many Christians are getting themselves into trouble unknowingly. They have dug themselves into a hole. Each day, they dig themselves deeper.

In the following pages, I'll explain in the simplest way possible why you may still be having trouble finding your God-ordained partner... and/or retaining the relationship to the point of marriage.

Let's begin with prayer.

Please find a quiet place where you will not be disturbed.

Close your eyes and take these 3 prayers with fire in your voice:

#1: Lord, anoint my eyes to see the spouse you have ordained for me in Jesus name.

#2: My marital blessings will not be transferred to another in the name of Jesus.

#3: By the blood of Jesus I cancel and render null and void every satanic command targeted at my marital destiny in Jesus name.

Now we're ready.

There are 9 common mistakes responsible for keeping many believers in the wilderness of 'single-hood' year after year.

Let's go through them together...

The 9 Mistakes that Almost All Christian Singles Make

Mistake #1: Having idols in the heart

This one is a biggie.

Please pay close attention. In the Bible, anything that takes the place of God in your heart is an idol. God wants to have first place in your life. Especially when it comes to the issue of a godly spouse. He has already kept His best for you. And you have to go to Him in prayer to find out.

Here lies the danger ...

If you go to God with your mind already made up about someone you want (like in Distress Email #2 above) and then just ask Him to “rubberstamp” your preference for you ... or asking Him to show you if that person is your godly spouse, you will most likely hear the voice of your own emotions echoed back to you ... and NOT really God’s voice.

In such a case, He will say YES if He sees that in your heart of hearts you’ve already made up your mind!

The Bible actually says that if you come to God with an idol in your heart He will answer you according to what you have in your heart.

Here’s the Bible verse:

"Therefore speak to them, and say to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Everyone of the house of Israel who sets up his idols in his heart, and puts before him what causes him to stumble into iniquity, and then comes to the prophet, I the LORD will answer him who comes, according to the multitude of his idols.

-Ezek 14:4

This is a pretty scary thought!

It means that MOST singles going around saying they heard from God this or that person is God's choice for them ... are merely deceiving themselves.

And heading for disaster without knowing it.

They will need to clear away their preconceived ideas about those they want and don't want ... and allow the LORD to lead them to His choice for them.

And He does lead people to His choices. I'll tell you about Rebecca in the Bible in a moment.

Mistake #2:
Ignoring your vehicle of destiny

Your 'vehicle' of destiny is a certain skill, talent, attribute or gift that God has given you ... by means of which He will deliver His best for your life, including your godly spouse. For some it is hospitality. For others, it might be the milk of human kindness. For others, it could be the ability to be persistent in the face of all odds.

Yours could be spiritual or physical. Maybe the ability to sing in an anointed way. Or help others in one way or the other. It is supposed to be your foremost, most dominant attribute. But if you don't recognize it ... and make full use of it, most of your blessings will be passing you by.

We see a great example of this in the Bible when we read the fascinating story of a young woman called Rebekah and how she found her godly spouse.

Unknown to her, the patriarch Abraham had sent his servant to her community to find a wife for Isaac his son. And the servant had journeyed for days until he arrived at the public water supply where Rebekah was soon to come to fetch water.

The man then prayed and asked the LORD to show him His choice for his master's son, Isaac. In his prayer, he asked that the chosen woman would be the one to give him and his camels drink.

Here's where it gets interesting and you need to pay even closer attention... as we pick up the story from the Bible:

Then he said, "O LORD God of my master Abraham, please give me success this day, and show kindness to my master Abraham. Behold, here I stand by the well of water, and the daughters of the men of the city are coming out to draw water. Now let it be that the young woman to whom I say, 'Please let down your pitcher that I may drink,' and she says, 'Drink, and I will also give your camels a drink' -- let her be the one You have appointed for Your servant Isaac. And by this I will know that You have shown kindness to my master."

And it happened, before he had finished speaking, that behold, Rebekah, who was born to Bethuel, son of Milcah, the wife of Nahor, Abraham's brother, came out with her pitcher on her shoulder. Now the young woman was very beautiful to behold, a virgin; no man had known her. And she went down to the well, filled her pitcher, and came up. And the servant ran to meet her and said, "Please let me drink a little water from your pitcher."

So she said, "Drink, my lord." Then she quickly let her pitcher down to her hand, and gave him a drink. And when she had finished giving him a drink, she said, "I will draw water for your camels also, until they have finished drinking." Then she quickly emptied her pitcher into the trough, ran back to the well to draw water, and drew for all his camels. And the man, wondering at her, remained silent so as to know whether the LORD had made his journey prosperous or not. - Gen 24:12-21

The man barely finished praying ...

... and Rebekah just showed up... as an answer to prayer!

Magnetized by the power of that prayer. That's why I tell people that the surest way of finding your godly spouse is through prayer.

Now, Rebekah had to do something to prove that she was truly the one. This was no easy job, considering she had to fetch water not just for the servant but for all 10 camels as well!

What was her vehicle of destiny?

Kindness. Hospitality.

She stood head and shoulders above the crowd by this singular action.

Sure, she was beautiful ... but that hardly counts.

After all there must have been girls even more beautiful but they didn't make the cut.

Another quick example from the Bible ... just in case that powerful example hasn't convinced you yet.

The heartbreaking story of Ruth. And how she found her godly spouse...

But Ruth said:

*"Entreat me not to leave you,
Or to turn back from following after you; For wherever you go, I will go; And wherever you lodge, I will lodge; Your people shall be my people, And your God, my God.*

Where you die, I will die, and there will I be buried. The LORD do so to me, and more also, If anything but death parts you and me." - Ruth 1:16-17

Because of her fierce loyalty to her mother-in-law even when she had good reason to abandon her in those trying times ... she ended up getting married to Boaz, a millionaire by the standard of those days.

Not only that.

She landed in the all-time Spiritual Hall of Fame.

Because with that marriage she became part of the lineage of our Lord Jesus Christ!

Powerful breakthrough.

There are so many instances of this in the Bible.

My question to you is this:

Do you even recognize what your vehicle of destiny is?

In this era of copycat lifestyles, is it possible that you have been busy trying to copy and imitate what others are doing ... in the process neglecting you God-given attributes and divine endowments?

Here's the risk:

If you have not identified and oiled that vehicle of destiny, how do you think you will ever meet your godly spouse?

Think about it.

Mistake #3:
Engaging in any form of sex outside marriage

The Bible says that our body is the temple of the Holy Ghost. We are warned against all form of sexual activity outside marriage.

When you violate this cardinal spiritual principle, you literally give the devil license to put you in a spiritual cage.

No one can find you. Or propose marriage. Period.

You could still be walking around – as beautiful as ever - but in the spiritual realm the devil has already written something like “Not Available” right across your forehead.

Why?

Because you gave him the license to claim you as his own.

You are not available for anyone else. That’s why you could be in the same church, office or community with your God-ordained partner for years and he / she will NEVER notice you.

Or if he /she does, it will never cross their mind that you could be the one.

Their eyes have been covered with a spiritual veil and no amount of positive confession or physical beauty can change that fact.

What I am saying here, those with spiritual eyes can confirm it.

Do you see beautiful singles wandering around in your church without a single marriage proposal?

Or those who get proposed to just wake up to discover that it’s not on?

Now if such “unavailable” singles happen to force themselves on someone out of desperation, you can be sure that disaster is just waiting to happen.

Many preachers do not even bother to preach against sexual sins anymore.

In fact, many of them are busy committing adultery with members of their congregation.

You don't believe me?

See this email I received just last week:

As I'm writing to you now , I feel broken , worthless , alone. I have been a member of a certain church in my country for the past 3 years, they have been amazing, I really saw God's hand in my life in so many ways there and also learnt how to be a strong prayer warrior amongst other things. I also serve in the church. I was so happy there, it became my home and the people my family, the founder and prophet of the church became the father I never had as i was growing , he mentored and nurtured me into the Christian I am today, my life has changed drastically over the years, all im good ways

But then the prophet made advances towards me and we began a relationship. I didn't have a problem because he is single (divorced) and so am I. Everything was great until I fell pregnant, I am 6 weeks now but I found out 2 weeks ago and he picked it up prophetically last week and asked me about it and i confirmed. To my surprise he was not happy, he doesn't want the baby and told me to have an abortion. I am at a complete loss, the man I have loved, trusted, served , the man who built me up and helped me get out of a bad place is now rejecting me.

I can't understand why I have to go through such pains in the house of God just as I did before I knew God. I have decided to go through with the abortion and leave the church because the pain I am going through is so much and so painful. I don't know where I will go or what I will do afterwards. I will be all alone. I have been praying to God for direction but sadly I have not received an answer as yet. - Anonymous

Please read this email again.

Do you see any hint of remorse? Any trace of repentance at all?

Does she even know she has deeply sinned against God?

There is something she needs to be doing right now. Do you know what that is?

God requires holiness. His standard has not changed.

Those holiness preachers who have the courage to still insist that there should be no sex outside marriage are the ones preaching the true, undiluted gospel of Jesus Christ.

If the Body of Christ would pay attention to this grave issue, I'm persuaded that the divorce rate among Christians will drop to its lowest levels. What's more, the number of Christian singles of marriageable age will drop dramatically.

Alas...

We're witnessing an even more dangerous trend these days. All manners of sexual perversions have been given the seal of approval and the church appears helpless to stand against the satanic invasion.

Any Christian caught up in these perversions would have to repent ... and quickly too!

Mistake #4:
Being ignorant of the mystery of spiritual marriage

There is something called evil spiritual marriage. So many singles who are unable to get married in the physical may already be married to certain spirits in the spiritual realm.

You will have a clue if you regularly have sex in the dream, or wake up feeling sexually aroused.

During such evil sexual encounters, the devil can plant so many evil things in the body of its victims. I'm talking about things like serpents, evil growths, incurable diseases, even sicknesses that defy medical diagnoses and treatments.

What we find in the Bible...

... as well as in real-life events shows quite graphically that so many people including Christians have been entangled in this evil web without even knowing it.

Now if someone is married in the spirit realm, it is a legal binding contract and one that cannot easily be broken except by persistent prayer, fasting and holy living. Simply confessing the word of God will not be very effective here. Fasting-prayer must be added.

If this is not dealt thoroughly with, it can result in late marriages. If the victim manages to get married at all, it will just be like the hordes of hell have been let loose on that marriage. No one will enjoy it. The spirit spouse will introduce all kinds of financial, health and marital problems ... just to break the marriage and return the person to square one.

This happens to both males and females in all cultures.

Whether Christian or not.

The mistake here is that many people do not believe this can happen to them. But anyone with the gift of the Holy Spirit called "the gift of discernment" can actually see these spirits at work on their victims!

Good news:

There are specific actions and prayers to break off the evil marriage and release you from their covenants and curses. Some of our prayer points are specifically targeted at this.

Mistake #5:
Evil Consultations

Ungodly associations such as consulting with psychics, astrologers, mediums, witches, occult people can lead you into forming soul ties with such people. What's worse, they can plant a spiritual device in their victims to monitor them wherever they go.

What's the danger in this?

When anything good is about to happen to their victims an alarm is activated in the spirit realm and invisible powers are quickly assigned to abort it.

That is why many people fail at the edge of their miracles. They cannot keep a job. They cannot keep a relationship. They are being followed about and monitored by invisible powers they cannot see.

If and when they happen to meet their godly spouse, an announcement goes out in the spirit realm to make sure the relationship is disrupted. At any cost!

My heart bleeds for Christians who have not been taught how to deal with powers that arise out of evil consultations with agents of darkness. For some people, the parents lay the foundation generations ago, and it is still active even today in the lives of the children.

Those whose parents were active in various occult and witchcraft groups would be deceiving themselves if they felt that they are not still being pursued by the powers of those cults. They need to apply the blood of Jesus to destroy the satanic foothold in their lives. Plus, they must keep a constant watch so those things don't come back to haunt them.

Why is this so important?

Because the moment you get dedicated or initiated into a cult group, you become legally married to the deities operating there. Just like when you gave your life to Christ, you became part of the Body of Christ, which is also known as the Bride of Christ.

Yes, you are married to whatever you worship!

If you are a vigilant and prayerful Christian, there should be a hedge around you, meaning that the enemy cannot claim ownership of you anymore.

But if you stray away from that hedge by committing sin (especially sexual sins) you open yourself up to a strong and aggressive counterattack by the enemy.

Who are bent on caging you, your godly spouse ... and all your divine blessings.

It saddens me to see Christians reading the horoscopes. And consulting with mediums on TV. These are expressways back to the cage. And in the spiritual cage, you can forget the thought of ever seeing your godly spouse.

There is an invisible stamp on the forehead saying, "Not Available."

Mistake #6:
Ignoring unbroken covenants

A covenant is an agreement binding on two or more parties. Some could be generational. Others could be as a result of one's present activities. If you've been reading our materials for a while you will know what a covenant is. And how to deal with it.

There is a particularly vicious hidden covenant that doesn't get mentioned all that often. You need to be aware of it when dealing with the subject of your godly spouse.

It is called the covenant with the first sexual partner.

A hidden but very powerful covenant is formed with the first person you had sex with. In fact, it is a covenant of blood – very stubborn to break.

The blood of Jesus gives us the right to break that particular covenant and loose ourselves from its evil consequences. Otherwise some may go through life stuck with the memories, guilt and evil load, especially if it was a matter of abuse or rape or incest as so often is the case.

The spiritual and emotional wounds really take long to heal (if they heal at all) ... and is one of the hidden causes such people either find it difficult to get married or stay in a relationship if they manage to get into one.

Mistake #7:
Dismissing the subject of unholy dressing

When Christians insist on dressing like the people of the world, they could end up attracting the unwanted attention of spirit beings ... who are enamored by their sexy dressing... and insist on following them around, fighting and quarreling over them just like humans would.

Oh, if only your spiritual eyes were open to see the calamity some have brought on themselves by these half-clad, skimpy and indecent dressing that pass for fashion.

A pertinent question should be:

Since these people have been dressing like these, how many marriage proposals have they received? Have they found their spouse yet?

What they end up doing is driving away their God-ordained spouse unintentionally because these invisible powers following them around want them all to themselves ... without any competition!

If you are a Bible student you will even notice a Scripture in 1 Corinthians 11 verse 10 that warns about women covering their hair.

Out of many reasons given by the Bible, this mysterious one stands out:

“BECAUSE OF THE ANGELS”

And this is in the New Testament.

In the Old Testament, we read about certain sons of God coming to marry the daughters of men.

Now it came to pass, when men began to multiply on the face of the earth, and daughters were born to them, that the sons of God saw the daughters of men, that they were beautiful; and they took wives for themselves of all whom they chose. - Gen 6:1-2

There is a school of thought that the sons of God mentioned here are NOT human beings but fallen spiritual beings that took a fancy to women to the extent of marrying them ... and provoking divine judgment.

Is that true? I cannot say. But please be careful how you dress.

Both visible and invisible entities are watching you!

Mistake #8:
Ignoring the activities of evil match-makers

There are matchmakers in the spiritual world. Most of them evil. Their job is provide counterfeit spouses. And manipulate people out of the will of God.

Now, the Bible warns against “being unequally yoked together with unbelievers” in 2 Corinthians 6 verse 14.

Some singles amuse me when they attempt to rationalize a relationship with an unbeliever. They want to win them to Christ, so the thinking goes.

They claim these ungodly people are really nice and will come around once they get married. And so on.

This is nothing but an exercise in self-deception.

Especially when you realize that these people have never led a single soul to the feet of Christ.

What makes them think they can win someone they are emotionally involved with?

Blind emotion. Lust. And totally unscriptural logic.

If you allow yourself to fall into this situation, know for certain that you have been captured by the manipulators in the spirit realm. It's their job to carry out evil matchmaking. And to destroy the relationship later (actually right after having sex).

Don't make the mistake of thinking you can ever win someone you are emotionally involved with ... to Christ.

The reverse is what normally happens.

Sure you can pray for them. Tell them about the saving grace of Jesus.

But it is the job of the Holy Spirit to bring them to the Lord, not yours.

Mistake #9:
Leaving unbroken curses in place

Many singles today come from cursed families or communities ... where people never stay married. Separation and/or divorce are the order of the day, etc. There are families where all the women never get married. Or marry late. Or have broken marriages.

You know why?

Because they are all operating under a strong anti-marriage curse.

They are under an umbrella of collective captivity. Most likely they are all married to the same invisible powers in the spirit realm, and they will not allow any human competition.

If you are a genuine Christian, living a holy and blameless life before the Lord, you have every authority to break out of any collective curse that puts people in captivity in your family or community.

And there are wonderful prayers to use for release from all anti-marriage curses.

Now, we've dealt with these mistakes, it is time to turn our attention to something else.

This is a bonus... a sort of 'thank you' for reading this far.

The 3 Deadly Mistakes the Experts Don't Even Know They Are Making

Who are the experts?

Marriage counsellors, advisors, relationship experts, etc.

Mistake #1: Using the wrong spiritual tools

For anyone involved in marriage counseling to be truly effective, they must possess at least one spiritual gift.

Out of the 9 gifts of the Holy Spirit mentioned in the book of 1 Corinthians chapter 12, none is as crucially important (in this connection) as the gift of “discerning of spirits.”

This ONE gift really unveils the spiritual world for you to see ... all the intense frenetic activities going on there.

Just like watching a movie!

In case that sounds strange, let me take you to one graphic incident out of many in the Bible.

First, the backstory.

Some kings are about to go to war. One of them, a Godfearing man, wanted to find out what the Lord had to say concerning the battle ahead.

Many popular prophets of the day were invited and they came with much fanfare ...

... to tell the kings what they wanted to hear.

But there was a prophet there, Micaiah by name, who had the rare ability to see the spirit realm clearly.

He could see spirits with his naked eyes.

He could hear the LORD giving orders about the upcoming battle. He could even see the spirit that was assigned to lead both the so-called prophets and the kings into error!

Hear this exciting prophet in action:

Then Micaiah said, "Therefore hear the word of the LORD: I saw the LORD sitting on His throne, and all the host of heaven standing by, on His right hand and on His left. And the LORD said, 'Who will persuade Ahab to go up, that he may fall at Ramoth Gilead?' So one spoke in this manner, and another spoke in that manner. Then a spirit came forward and stood before the LORD, and said, 'I will persuade him.' The LORD said to him, 'In what way?' So he said, 'I will go out and be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets.' And the LORD said, 'You shall persuade him, and also prevail. Go out and do so.'

1 Kings 22:19-23

For anyone to counsel you effectively, they must have some deep insights into the Word of God ... and the discernment to know the mind of the Lord in a particular situation.

The problems of late marriages and relationships in general have deep roots in the spiritual ... and only those who are divinely equipped through consistent prayer, fasting and holy living can successfully counsel and advise you.

I encourage Christian singles to learn the DIY (Do-It-Yourself) method and seek to receive divine revelations about their marriage partners for themselves ... directly from the Lord.

Yes, it is possible.

That way whatever someone else is saying will only confirm what you have received already.

Great thing about this is:

Some “prophet” will not be able to manipulate you.

Otherwise you could fall into the hands of pop-psychologists or even satanists masquerading as ministers of the gospel who sole aim is to divert people out of the will of God.

Mistake #2:
Living in spiritual ignorance and laziness

If someone is counseling you but you notice that they are not very interested in fasting and prayers you should be careful. Even if they have big church titles.

And if they do NOT know the Word of God concerning relationships, then I suggest you run away from them. No matter how anointed they claim to be.

Why?

Because in their spiritual ignorance, they will only be telling you what they think you want to hear, with little or no direct revelation from the Lord.

This is a recipe for disaster ... a classic case of the blind leading the blind that Jesus so often talked about!

Mistake #3:
Falling for new-age teachings dressed in gospel robes

Where do you suppose all the relationship advice you hear from many TV pulpits and social media today are coming from?

Pop psychology.

Self-improvement new-age cults.

A strange admixture of Christianity and self-help ...

That is, you get 20 percent Christianity and 80 percent Eastern cult thrown into the mix!

Why?

Since most relationship ‘experts’ lack fresh, timely spiritual information (unlike Prophet Micaiah in the Bible), they resort to filling the gap with half-truths and even downright falsehoods.

Those who bother to reference scripture at all still end up with 80% psychology and 20% spiritual advice.

Not good enough.

No relationship can survive on the basis of a mere 20 percent content of the Word of God.

You have to go all the way. Or find those who can help you go all the way.

Because all the principles to successful relationships and marriages can be found in the Word of God.

It takes fasting, prayer and hearing ears in the spirit to ‘see’ them on the one hand ... and the Holy Spirit to teach us how to apply them properly, on the other.

Finally, How to Say Goodbye to the Single Life

Your prayers must be focused.

And targeted at some or all of the following...

- 1 Repent before the LORD and receive His forgiveness
- 2 Break anti-marriage yokes, curses and covenants
- 3 Break evil dedication and soul-ties
- 4 Eject satanic plantations and evacuate evil deposits
- 5 Send confusion to the camp of the enemy (of your marriage)
- 6 Withdraw your virtues from evil altars (blood, clothes, finances)
- 7 Break evil spiritual marriages (no more sex in the dream)
- 8 Destroy evil family patterns i.e. divorce, separation, abusive relationships, etc.
- 9 Dismantle invisible walls separating you and your godly spouse
- 10 Know the secrets (spiritual secrets about your upcoming marriage)
- 11 Loose the grip of anger (so you don't foolishly drive away your godly spouse in a fit of rage)
- 12 Receive the fresh baptism of fire ... for total spiritual revival and divine exploits
- 13 Pray to discover God's will for you in marriage (so you can summarily dismiss all fakes and counterfeits)
- 14 Uncage your partner ... so he/she can locate you without further delay

- 15 Pray on target if you're already engaged to be married ... so the enemy does not throw a wrench in your plans
- 16 Pray against anti-marriage infirmity (STDs, blood diseases, tumors, etc)
- 17 Carry out environmental spiritual sanitation (you will learn how to spray Holy Ghost insecticide through prayers)
- 18 Pray against satanic reinforcement (Note: the enemy of your marriage will not be happy that you've discovered this manner of prayers ... and will try to stage a comeback!)

- 19 Pray against counterattack (on your finances, health, loved ones, etc)
- 20 Pray thanksgiving prayers (a practical demonstration of your faith that the LORD has answered you)

Since you've read this far ...

... you realize that sitting around, hoping against hope that everything will be miraculously sorted out ... and your godly spouse will just appear sometime in the future ...

... without the proper spiritual action on your part (as explained in this Special Report) might not be the wisest thing to do.

Please permit me to highlight 12 dangers lurking on the highway of relationships and marriages in the 21st century.

These are the major headaches in the Christian community ... and they are posing HUGE challenges to most congregations today.

Christian marriage counsellors and deliverance ministers have their work cut out for them, especially with so many believers still ...

- 1 Getting into marriage when one or both partners have not fully committed their lives to the Lord.
- 2 Getting married as a result of accidental pregnancy
- 3 Engaging in sex before/outside marriage for whatever reason
- 4 Consulting with psychics, fortune tellers, mediums and false prophets about your marriage
- 5 Being forced into marriage
- 6 Retaining evil deposits in the body as a result of sexual pollution in the days of ignorance as a child or youth
- 7 Being trapped in a marriage sealed with evil blood covenants, whether knowingly or unknowingly
- 8 Getting married out of desperation and frustration

- 9 Getting married to an ungodly spouse (hoping to convert them to Christ later)
- 10 Getting married solely on the basis of lust and physical attraction
- 11 Getting married out of greed and lust for material gain
- 12 Getting married on the basis of evil prophecies and fake dreams

The NEW Singles Forum

This is the home of all the prayers for singles.

In the past, we allowed many people in. But now access is restricted.

Only those who are grounded in our teachings are ever invited to register. No one who has not passed through the 7 Lessons of the Prayer Academy will be invited.

Why?

A few years ago, I received a rude shock. We found that many of those in the program were already cohabiting with partners they were not married to... having sex without any qualms.

We only got to learn about this after they ran into really serious spiritual problems.

So we made the rule:

The only way to receive the invitation email to the Singles Forum is to go through the lessons of the Prayer Academy first.

THEN WHAT?

After those lessons, no one can claim ignorance about the standard that God expects of us.

Among other things, the Singles Forum is loaded with monthly prayers to:

- 1 repair bad marital foundation.
- 2 break hidden anti-marriage curses, if any.
- 3 destroy inherited satanic priesthood, if any.
- 4 eliminate ungodly covenants and cancel their effects.
- 5 break off anti-marriage spells, jinxes and bewitchment.
- 6 destroy the grip of spiritual strongmen assigned to hinder godly marriages.
- 7 release you from collective family patterns, sins and evil marks.
- 8 separate you from occult and dark practices designed to hinder marriages ... in your family or environment that you might not even be aware of!
- 9 Release you (and your spouse) from the cage of evil spiritual marriages.
- 10 Wipe away the handwriting of debt and poverty from your life.
- 11 Loose you from the grip of anti-marriage infirmity.

If you have passed through the Prayer Academy in the last few years (and you will like to join the Singles Forum) please watch your inbox in the next few days.

We're reopening registration just for a few before Easter in order to accommodate our subscribers who have been asking.
