Preface

Who Is Susan Boyle?

A few weeks ago, Susan was alone and lonely. She freely admitted she'd never even been kissed. And at 47, life had nearly passed her by.

One glance at the poor woman and you would have immediately known why.

After all – haven't our movies and TV taught us that successful people are always good-looking, intelligent, talented and, well ... cool?

And haven't they also taught us that people who look like Susan are dim-witted, ungifted, worthless – and in some cases, even villainous?

Little wonder that, when Susan dared share her dream of singing on stage, most people only snickered at her ...

When she said she would audition for the British version of American Idol, the laughing grew louder ...

And when Susan waddled onto the stage and told Simon Cowell that her dream was to be a star, the guffaws exploded into a deafening roar.

Because, after all: Everyone knows that singing stars never, ever look like Susan.

But ...

This 47-year old frumpy-looking church volunteer has silenced all the critics and turned conventional wisdom upside down.

Since her breath-taking show on stage, singing the song "I Dreamed a Dream" she has become a huge international hit, with a video of her performance garnering a record-setting 50 million views on YouTube in a week.

In the words of Piers Morgan, one of the three judges on the show:

“No one is laughing now!”

One social commentator who is known for being brutally frank has this to say about Susan’s video on Youtube:

"If you can watch this video without blubbering like a little girl, better take your pulse – because whether you know it or not, you have passed away.

... and it would be a great favor to society if somebody just buried you — and the sooner, the better."

Too blunt? Maybe...

All around the world, opinion leaders and celebrities are weighing in. Ian Youngs, entertainment reporter for BBC News wrote:

“Boyle has shattered prejudices about the connection between age, appearance and talent. She has proved that you don't have to be young and glamorous to be talented, and recognized as such.

The YouTube millions have cheered on the underdog, and seen in her the possibilities for their own hopes and dreams.”

Piers Morgan apologized to Susan publicly on CNN's Larry King Show:

"I'm sorry because we did not give you anything like the respect we should have done when you first came out," he told her. Referring to her appearance, he said: "We thought you were going to be a bit of a joke act, to be honest with you."

To Lisa Schwarzbaum, writer for US celebrity magazine Entertainment Weekly, the performance was a powerful reality check.

She wrote:

"In our pop-minded culture so slavishly obsessed with packaging - the right face, the right clothes, the right attitudes, the right Facebook posts - the unpackaged artistic power of the unstyled, un-hip, un-kissed Ms Boyle let me feel, for the duration of one blazing showstopping ballad, the meaning of human grace.

"She pierced my defences. She reordered the measure of beauty. And I had no idea until tears sprang how desperately I need that corrective."

Her post has been followed by emotional comments from scores of readers.

"I cried SO hard," read one. "There's something so beautiful about reaching your dreams... and knowing that age means nothing."

Another wrote:

"I cry because she reminds us to hope, to never lose track of our dreams, to keep putting one foot in front of the other no matter what others say or think. She gives us hope."

Boyle's home has been besieged by media from around the world

Melanie Reid of The Times wrote:

"Fairytale don't come any more satisfactory than this ..."

"The sisterhood of the plain, those of us who will never look like Girls Aloud, nor even Girls Aloud's grandmothers, are cheering as never before.

"Susan Boyle is the ugly duckling who didn't need to turn into a swan; she has fulfilled the dreams of millions who, downtrodden by the cruelty of a culture that judges them on their appearance, have settled for life without looking in the mirror."

Miranda Sawyer, writing in the Daily Mirror, questioned why image was less of an issue for male singers.

She wrote:

"No woman gets to perform publicly unless she looks like Mariah Carey. If you're a female singer, you are required by showbiz law to appear sexy at all times.

Poor Madonna and Kylie are desperately keeping up appearances, holding back the years with Botox and face-fillers just so they're allowed to continue with their careers."

The Sun newspaper has given away a free Susan Boyle souvenir poster.

US talk show host Jay Leno performed an impression of her on his show.

Demi Moore, the famous actress has joined the fan club.

Scottish First Minister Alex Salmond has congratulated her.

She is odds-on favorite to win Britain's Got Talent.

A star has been born.

Because she dared to dream her dream ... and pursue it with all she's got.

What about you?

This Is Not Just About Susan ... It is About You!

This story should do more than just make you cheer for Susan.

Because if you'll think about it for a moment, you'll realize that the rush of emotion you're feeling right now isn't really even about Susan.

It's about YOU.

If you watched the video on YouTube, did you hear when she got to where the song says:

*"But the tigers come at night,
With their voices soft as thunder,
As they tear your hope apart,
And they turn your dream to shame."*

You know what?

For many people, invisible tigers or dream killers have already torn their dreams -- of getting married to their godly spouse -- apart.

Like Susan, you also have dream killers ...

And they begin scoffing at you the minute you walked on to the stage of life, hoping to fulfill your dreams.

The dream killers tell you that you're not smart enough or talented enough or well-educated enough to deserve success. .. or to even get married.

Or you're not the right age ... or sex ... or color.

Or you come from the wrong country ... or ethnic group ... or family background.

Or you're too fat ... too thin ... or too sickly.

Or you've failed too many times in the past to deserve success now.

That discouraging voice inside that scoffs at every dream you ever had; that criticizes every plan you make and every word you say ...

The dream killer who's constantly telling you that you don't deserve to have a better life – or to get married to the spouse of your dreams ...

The demon who constantly shows you evil pictures in the dream of your past failures even as you're striving to make some progress ...

The dream "hijackers" who urge you to abandon your dream and to join the dull grey masses of cynical humanity who spend the rest of their lives blaming God ... or the devil ... or other people for their failure.

You've Just Found Gold!!

It will take you exactly 27 minutes to read through this Special Report.

If you decide to invest the next few minutes and read this FREE Report, I guarantee that you will discover why your dream of getting married to your God-given spouse – and enjoying a love-filled marriage – has so far eluded you.

I don't say that lightly. I am going to throw you a challenge towards the end of this Special Report (more about this in a moment).

If you are inspired to take up this challenge, it won't be long before you begin to share your very own testimonies, just like this one here:

"I wish to share my testimony. I have a copy of your Prayer Cookbook... I used the prayer points from Prayers for Christian Singles. Almost within a month, I received an answer. The engagement just got over and wedding has been fixed for April 13, 2009."

-- J.M., New York

Now you have it. The choice is yours.

SECTION 1

Let's Jump Right Into It ...

Dr. Neil Clarke Warren, founder of eHarmony.com, the popular Internet dating site with over 12 million members recently said that his website records 90 weddings a day!

This confirms his long-held belief that millions of singles would love to get married – but only if they could live happily and forever with their partners.

And the truth is:

The vast majority of single men and women are fed up with the single life ... and the dating game.

The whole frustrating, exhilarating, maddening, crazy process leaves them confused, baffled and hopeless.

This is especially hard to swallow for most Christian singles.

Especially when they've been raised to believe that as long as you live a decent Christian life, and sow your seeds (money) regularly, pay your tithes and give your offerings ... you are all set!

It should break your heart to see that many have been doing that for years ... until they suddenly woke up to discover that while they are rapidly approaching the proverbial age of 40, the hope of a happy marriage seems to be receding ... like a mirage as the years go by.

And gradually, they have come to find dating a painful, sometimes frightening, endlessly puzzling pursuit.

Deep down in their heart ...

They would like to cut down on the hassle of finding their ideal marriage partner ... completely eliminate the deceptions and heartaches ... and glide effortlessly into a match made in heaven ... a relationship headed straight to the wedding altar ...

Followed by a “happy ever after.”

In the shortest possible time.

But there’s a HUGE problem ...

How to recognize and connect with their God-ordained spouse.

Bone of their bones ... flesh of their flesh.

This has remained a mystery to many.

In an age where there’s so much deception and counterfeits even inside the church, how is one to avoid getting entangled with ...

- Alcoholics
- Child abusers
- Scammers
- Plain ol’ thieves and crooks
- Or even murderers

... all wolves in sheep’s clothing?

Why?

Because making the wrong choice in marriage can quickly become a classic one-way ticket to hell on earth...

Now most Christian singles I meet will almost give an arm and a leg just to “know” God’s choice for them so they can avoid making a wrong choice in marriage.

Unfortunately there are 9 deadly mistakes that almost all Christian singles make ... in a desperate attempt to know their godly spouse ...

One who will love and care for them “till death do us part.”

For some who have managed to “find”, getting them to “propose” has proved to be an uphill task.

For months. Even years.

Here’s what’s even more alarming ...

The relationship experts who are supposed to be giving direction, counseling and godly advice ... are themselves making 3 crucial, deadly mistakes ... resulting in ineffective counseling and all-round frustration for everyone concerned.

But There Is Good News...

This short manuscript you are now holding in your hands is a godsend.

It exposes all these mistakes and gives you a short-cut, unfailing blueprint you can implement in just 21 days ... or 21 weeks ... or 21 months (depending on how hungry you are) ...

- That will allow you to attract, meet and recognize your godly spouse within the next 6 months.
- And watch as the long awaited proposal finally becomes a reality.

Question is:

- Are you interested in doing things God’s way?
- Do you desire to have God’s choice in marriage?

Now there’s nothing like having God’s best for your life.

If your answer is YES and YES, then accept my congratulations.

You've come to the right place.

You will find that this Special Report cuts right through the noise and the clutter, takes you by the hand and shows you exactly how to find your godly spouse ... as quickly as possible.

But first, some ground rules ...

This material is designed to show you the quickest, PROVEN, surest way that a selected few (the discerning, prayerful minority) have used to find the solution to this one, burning issue.

While it has brought sudden results in a matter of weeks to some, it may not work fast enough for others.

It might NOT even work for some (more on this later).

To set the record straight, what you are going to see here ...

- Is NOT pop-psychology stuff
- Is NOT new age, self-improvement concepts repackaged
- Is NOT even the faith-talk, positive confession sound bites you hear on TV.

No. It is none of that.

Rather what you are about to discover are powerful spiritual secrets buried deep in the Bible ... that have been used for generations by strong Christian ministries focused on teaching (and demonstrating) the gospel in totality.

That is, they teach:

- Salvation.
- Healing.
- Deliverance.
- Restoration.

... the whole works.

And there are results to show for it.

Real life results ... just like JESUS had when He walked the earth.

Just like this one (pulled from our prayer website)...

"Prayer Marathon Brings My Godly Spouse"

"I have great news to share with you. I took in the Prayer Marathon in December and prayed for my finances, the ministry that God has for me and my future spouse. January the 17th my husband to be came into my life and we are going to be married in June, is that not WONDERFUL!!!, I am so happy. God is GOOD."

-- Sister Maggie, South Africa

And this ...

"Was Heading Toward Divorce But Now..."

"Dear Elisha

I thank you very much for all your help. I had serious problems in my marriage when I stumbled on your website. I really don't know how I got here but I found myself there. Anyway I want to give glory to GOD and thank you for your prayer points on how to turn a troubled relationship to terrific relationship. After barely three weeks of praying and fasting, my marriage was restored in ways I could have never imagined.

I was headed for a divorce but knowing that it wasn't God's will for my marriage I trusted God to do things his way and lifted my marriage to him. It's really hard to believe sometimes when I look at my husband and think how he used to be and the words he used to say and giving me a guarantee that I should start living my life as a divorcee....

Indeed this God that we worship is true, faithful and alive and these prayer points, it's true that they have they been tested and proven to work. I thank you so much for all your help and may our good Lord continue to speak to you and give you wisdom to help others. God bless you.

"Godly Spouse Shows Up After Prayer Riot"

"I now believe there is nothing impossible to have, if only I can commit myself into prayer. I was almost frustrated with life until you gave prayer guidelines and I started doing it. I can say my life is no more the same. I needed 3 things and the LORD has given them to me – a car, a house and a husband. After the Prayer Riot (where I did the 21-day fast), the long-awaited life partner finally came up by July 3. By the grace of God we will wed in January. I am so happy."

-- Sister A, Italy

"God Brought My Ex-Husband Back After 23 Years of Divorce"

*"Dear Elisha,
It's been pretty tough. When I stopped praying those prayer points that you e-mailed me. I slacked in fasting, praying and reading God's word. I had to repent ask GOD for forgiveness and start all over. Look as though everything went wrong.*

Before, I got in my comfort zone of not fasting and praying nor reading God's word. I prayed some of those prayer points, God brought me and my ex-husband back together after twenty-three years of divorce.

We got into an argument. I'm not speaking to him and he's not speaking to me right now. The Lord brought to my attention to fast all this week, fight for what's mine, take back what the devil has stolen by fasting and praying and by using the prayer points, and to ask my ex-husband for forgiveness as well as he should do the same for me.

GOD says not just to pray for me and my ex-husband but for other married couples who having marital problems as well. I praised the Lord for you and your beautiful work in the ministry."

- Joanne R, Seattle

This manuscript helps YOU to crack open centuries of PROVEN spiritual wisdom locked up in the Holy Scriptures ... deconstructing them into simple, step by step guidelines that you can follow in the privacy of your home ... to literally make it easy, real easy, for your God-ordained spouse to find and propose to you in a matter of months, even weeks.

But first, the 9 mistakes (and how to avoid them) ...

SECTION 2

The 9 Mistakes (Almost) All Christian Singles Make

Mistake #1

Having idols in the heart

This is one of the biggies. Please pay close attention here. In the Bible, anything that takes the place of God in your heart is an idol. God wants to have first place in your life. Especially when it comes to the issue of a godly spouse. HE has already kept His best for you. And you have to go to Him in prayer to find out.

And here lies the danger ...

If you go to God with your mind already made up about someone you want and then you just ask Him to “rubberstamp” your preference for you ... by asking Him to show you if that person is your godly spouse, you will most likely hear the voice of your own emotions echoed back to you ... and NOT really God’s voice.

In this case, God can even say YES if He sees that in your heart of hearts you’ve already made up your mind!

The Bible actually says that if you come to God with an “idol” in your heart He will answer you according to what you have in your heart.

Here’s how the Bible puts it:

"Therefore speak to them, and say to them, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: 'Everyone of the house of Israel who sets up his idols in his heart, and puts before him what causes him to stumble into iniquity, and then comes to the prophet, I the LORD will answer him who comes, according to the multitude of his idols.

-- Ezek. 14:4

This is a pretty scary thought!

It means that MOST singles going around saying they heard from God this or that person is God's choice for them ... are merely deceiving themselves.

And heading for disaster without knowing it.

They will need to clear away their preconceived ideas about those they want and don't want ... and allow the LORD to lead them to His choice for them.

And He does lead people to His choices. I'll show you an exciting incident in a moment.

Mistake #2

Ignoring your vehicle of destiny

Your vehicle of destiny is a certain skill, talent, attribute or gift that God has given you ... by means of which He will deliver His best for your life, including your godly spouse.

For some it is hospitality. For others it is the milk of human kindness. For others it is the ability to be persistent in the face of all odds.

Yours could be spiritual or physical.

Maybe the ability to sing. Or help others in one way or the other. It is supposed to be your most dominant attribute. But if you don't recognize it ... and make full use of it, most of your blessings will be passing you by.

We see a good example of this in the Bible when we read the fascinating story of a young woman called Rebekah and how she got connected with her godly spouse.

Here's the story.

The patriarch Abraham had sent his servant to her community to find a wife for his son Isaac. After the servant had journeyed for days, he arrived at the public water supply in a community where Rebekah was soon to come to fetch water.

The man then prayed and asked the LORD to show him His choice for his master's son, Isaac. In his prayer he asked that the chosen woman would be the one to give him and his camels drink.

Here's where it gets interesting and you need to pay even closer attention... as we pick up the story from the Bible:

Then he said, "O LORD God of my master Abraham, please give me success this day, and show kindness to my master Abraham. Behold, here I stand by the well of water, and the daughters of the men of the city are coming out to draw water. Now let it be that the young woman to whom I say, 'Please let down your pitcher that I may drink,' and she says, 'Drink, and I will also give your camels a drink' -- let her be the one You have appointed for Your servant Isaac. And by this I will know that You have shown kindness to my master."

And it happened, before he had finished speaking, that behold, Rebekah, who was born to Bethuel, son of Milcah, the wife of Nahor, Abraham's brother, came out with her pitcher on her shoulder. Now the young woman was very beautiful to behold, a virgin; no man had known her. And she went down to the well, filled her pitcher, and came up. And the servant ran to meet her and said, "Please let me drink a little water from your pitcher."

So she said, "Drink, my lord." Then she quickly let her pitcher down to her hand, and gave him a drink. And when she had finished giving him a drink, she said, "I will draw water for your camels also, until they have finished drinking." Then she quickly emptied her pitcher into the trough, ran back to the well to draw water, and drew for all his camels. And the man, wondering at her, remained silent so as to know whether the LORD had made his journey prosperous or not.

Gen 24:12-21

The man barely finished praying ... and Rebekah was already there as an answer to prayer!

Magnetized by the power of that prayer. That's why I tell people that the surest way of finding your godly spouse is through prayer.

Now, Rebekah had to do something to show that she was truly the one. This was no easy job, considering she had to fetch water not just for the servant but for all 10 camels as well!

What was her vehicle of destiny?

Kindness. Hospitality.

By this singular action, she stood head and shoulders above the rest...

Sure, she was beautiful ... but that hardly counts. After all there must have been girls even more beautiful ... but they didn't make the cut.

Another quick example from the Bible ... just in case that powerful example hasn't convinced you yet.

The heartbreaking story of Ruth. And how she made the divine connection to her godly spouse...

But Ruth said:

*"Entreat me not to leave you,
Or to turn back from following after you;*

*For wherever you go, I will go;
And wherever you lodge, I will lodge;*

*Your people shall be my people,
And your God, my God.*

*Where you die, I will die,
And there will I be buried.*

*The LORD do so to me, and more also,
If anything but death parts you and me."*

- Ruth 1:16-17

Because of her undying loyalty to her mother-in-law even when she had good reason to abandon her in trying times ... she ended up getting married to Boaz, a man of great substance, thereby landing in the all-time Spiritual Hall of Fame.

With that marriage she became part of the lineage of our Lord Jesus Christ!

Pretty powerful stuff.

There are so many instances of this in the scripture.

My question to you is:

Do you even recognize what your vehicle of destiny is?

In this era of fierce satanic competition, is it possible that you have been too busy trying to copy and imitate what others are doing ... in the process neglecting you God-given attributes and divine endowments?

Here's the risk:

If you have not identified and nurtured that vehicle of destiny, how do you think you will ever meet your godly spouse?

Think about it.

Mistake #3

Continuing to engage in any form of sex outside marriage

The Bible says clearly that our body is the temple of the Holy Ghost. We are warned against all form of sexual activity outside marriage.

When you violate this crucial spiritual principle, you literally give the devil license to put you in a spiritual cage.

No one can find you.

Or propose marriage.

Period.

You could still be walking around – as beautiful as ever - but in the spiritual realm the devil has already written something like “Not Available” right across your forehead.

Why?

Because you now belong to him.

You are not available for anyone else. That’s why you could be in the same church, office or community with your God-ordained partner for years and he / she will NEVER notice you.

Or if he /she does, it will never cross their mind that you could be the one.

Their eyes have been covered with a spiritual veil and no amount of positive confession or physical beauty can change that fact.

What I am saying, those with spiritual eyes can confirm it.

Do you see beautiful singles wandering around in your church without even one marriage proposal?

Or those who get proposed to just wake up to discover that it's been cancelled, delayed or rescheduled? For no plausible reason.

Now if such "unavailable" singles happen to force themselves on someone out of desperation, you can be sure that disaster is just waiting to happen.

As an aside, remember those holiness preachers who used to insist that there should be no sex before marriage?

They sure knew a thing or two.

And you can be certain that the divorce rate among Christians will drop to its lowest levels if this one is given the attention it deserves.

Now there's an even more dangerous trend in our corner of the world these days. Sexual perversion like same-sex marriages is taking place right inside the church.

In the Bible this is the one sin that God never tolerates at all. Anyone who is engaged in (or even tolerates) homosexuality or lesbianism is directly in the line of fire.

And God is the one who pulls the trigger here.

Unless they repent... and turn away from it.

Mistake #4

Being ignorant of the mystery of spiritual marriage

There is something called spiritual marriage. So many singles who are unable to get married in the physical are already married to certain spirits as far as the spiritual world is concerned.

You will have a clue if you regularly have sex in the dream, or wake up feeling sexually aroused.

This one used to be a closely guarded secret until certain prayer warriors made it their business to get at the root of the matter. What they found out in scripture as well as in real-life events shows quite graphically that so many people including Christians have been entangled in this evil web without even knowing it.

Now if someone is married in the spirit realm, it is a legal binding contract and one that cannot easily be broken except by violent prayer and fasting. Ordinary confessing the Word of God does not work here.

It needs targeted prayer and a peculiar kind of fasting to deal with it successfully.

Now if this is not dealt with properly, it can result in late marriages, and if the person manages to get married at all, it will just be like the hordes of hell have been let loose on that marriage.

No one will enjoy it. The spirit spouse will introduce all kinds of financial, health and marital problems ... just to break the marriage and return the person to square one.

This happens to both males and females. Whether Christian or not.

The mistake here is that many Christians and pastors do not believe this can happen to them. But anyone with the gift of the Holy Spirit called “the gift of discernment” can actually see these spirits at work on their victims!

Good news:

There are specific prayers to break off this kind of evil marriage and release you from the captivity of satan. Some of our prayer “bullets” are specifically targeted at this.

Mistake #5

Getting into ungodly associations

Ungodly associations such as consulting with astrologers, mediums, witches, occult people can lead you into forming soul ties with such people. What’s worse, they can plant a spiritual device in an individual to monitor her anywhere she goes. And when anything good is about to happen to that person an alarm is activated in the spirit realm and invisible powers are quickly assigned to abort it.

That is why many people fail at the edge of their breakthroughs. They are being followed about and monitored by invisible powers they cannot see.

In the specific case of marriage and relationships, if and when the person happens to meet their godly spouse, an announcement goes out in the spirit realm to make sure the relationship is disrupted.

At any cost!

My heart bleeds for Christians who have not been taught how to deal with powers that arise out of evil associations. For some people, the evil associations were formed generations ago, but they are still active even today in the lives of the offsprings.

For example, those whose parents were members of freemason and other occult and witchcraft groups would be deceiving themselves if they felt that they are not still being pursued by the powers of those cults.

They may be Christians now but satanic fingerprints must be destroyed from their DNA so those powers don't come back to haunt them.

Why is this so important?

Because the moment you get initiated into a cult group, you become legally married to the deities operating there. Just like when someone gives their life to Christ, they become part of the Body of Christ, which is also known as the Bride of Christ.

Yes, you are married to whatever you worship!

If you are a vigilant and prayerful Christian, there should be an hedge around you and the enemy cannot claim ownership of you anymore.

But if you stray away from that hedge by committing sin (especially sexual sins) you open yourself up to a strong and aggressive counterattack by the enemy.

Who are bent on caging you ... and stealing all your blessings, including your marriage.

It saddens me to see Christians reading the horoscopes. And consulting with mediums on TV. These are expressways back to the cage. And in the spiritual cage, you can forget the thought of ever enjoying marital bliss or getting married to the right partner in the first place.

There remains an invisible stamp on the forehead saying “Not Available.”

Mistake #6

Ignoring unbroken covenants

A covenant is an agreement binding on two or more parties. Some could be generational. Others could be as a result of one’s present activities. If you’ve been reading my materials for a while you will know what a covenant is.

And how to deal with it.

There is a particularly important hidden covenant that doesn’t get mentioned all that often. You need to be aware of it when dealing with the subject of your godly spouse.

It is called the covenant with the first sexual partner.

A hidden but very powerful covenant is formed with the first person you had sex with. In fact it is a covenant of blood – very stubborn to break.

The blood of Jesus gives us the right to break that particular covenant and loose ourselves from its evil consequences. Otherwise some may go through life stuck with the memories, especially if it was a case of abuse or rape or incest as so often is the case.

The spiritual and emotional wounds really take long to heal (if they ever heal at all) ... and is one of the hidden causes such people either find it difficult to get married or stay in a relationship if they manage to get into one.

Mistake #7

Dismissing the subject of unholy dressing

When Christians insist on dressing like the people of the world, they end up attracting the unwanted attention of spirit beings ... who are enamored by their sexy dressing... and insist on following them around in the spirit, fighting and quarreling over them just like humans would.

Oh, if only your spiritual eyes were open to see the calamity some have brought on themselves by these half-clad, skimpy and indecent dressing that passes for modern day fashion.

A pertinent question should be:

Since these people have been dressing like these, have they found their spouse yet?

What they end up doing is driving away their God-ordained spouse unintentionally because these invisible powers following them around want them all to themselves ... without any competition!

If you are a Bible student you will even notice a scripture in 1 Corinthians 11 verse 10 that warns about women covering their hair.

Out of many reasons given by the Bible, this mysterious one stands out:

“BECAUSE OF THE ANGELS”

And this is in the New Testament.

In the Old Testament we read about certain sons of God coming to marry the daughters of men.

Now it came to pass, when men began to multiply on the face of the earth, and daughters were born to them, that the sons of God saw the daughters of men, that they were beautiful; and they took wives for themselves of all whom they chose.

Gen 6:1-2

The sons of God mentioned here are NOT human beings but spiritual beings that took a fancy to women to the extent of marrying them ...

And provoking divine judgment ...

Please be careful how you dress.

Both visible and invisible entities are watching you!

Mistake #8

Ignoring the activities of evil manipulators

There are matchmakers in the spiritual world. Most of them evil. Their job is to provide counterfeit spouses. And manipulate people out of the will of God.

Now, the Bible clearly warns against “being unequally yoked together with unbelievers” in 2 Corinthians 6 verse 14.

Some singles amuse me when they attempt to rationalize a relationship with an unbeliever. They want to win them to Christ, so the thinking goes. These ungodly people are really nice folks and they will come round once they get married. And so on.

This is nothing but an exercise in self-deception. Especially when you realize that these kind of Christians have never brought a single soul to the feet of Christ.

What makes them think they can win someone they are emotionally involved with?

Blind emotion. Lust. And totally unscriptural logic.

If you allow yourself to fall into this situation, know for certain that you have been captured by the manipulators in the spirit realm. It's their job to carry out evil matchmaking. And to destroy the relationship in short order.

Don't make the mistake of thinking you can ever win someone you are emotionally involved with ... to Christ. The reverse is what normally happens. Sure you can pray for them. Tell them about JESUS.

But it is the job of the Holy Spirit to bring them to the Lord, not yours.

Mistake #9

Leaving unbroken curses in place

Many singles today come from cursed families or communities ... where people never stay married, separation and divorce is the order of the day, etc. Even in some families, all the women never get married. Or marry late. Or have broken marriages.

You know why?

Because they are all operating under a strong anti-marriage curse. Most likely they are all married to the same invisible powers in the spirit realm that will not allow any human competition.

If you are a genuine Christian, living a holy and blameless life before the Lord, you have every authority to break out of any collective curse that puts people in captivity in your family or community.

And there are wonderful prayers to use for release from all anti-marriage curses in a latter section.

SECTION 3

The 3 Deadly Mistakes The Experts Don't Even Know They Are Making

Mistake #1

Using the wrong spiritual tools

What I have just shared with you is a brief summary of 77 years of spiritual research carried out by some of God's best warriors in the trenches of spiritual action.

Fully supported by painstaking biblical research. And results no one can deny. Our website alone is loaded with 1925 testimonies from 117 countries.

These are just the results of using some of the principles I am sharing with you here.

It is definitely not armchair theory.

Now for anyone to counsel you effectively, they must possess at least one spiritual gift. Out of the 9 gifts of the Holy Spirit listed in the book of 1 Corinthians chapter 12, none is as crucially important (in this connection) as the gift of "discerning of spirits."

This ONE gift really unveils the spiritual world for you to see all the intense frenetic activities going on there.

Just like watching a movie!

In case that sounds strange, let me take you to just one graphic incident out of many in the Bible.

Here's the story.

Some kings about to go to war. One of them, a God fearing man, persuaded them to find out what the mind of the Lord was concerning the battle ahead.

Many so-called prophets were invited and they came with much fanfare ... to tell the kings what they wanted to hear.

But there was a prophet there, Micaiah by name, who had the rare ability to see the spirit realm very clearly.

He could see spirits with his “naked” eyes. He could hear the Lord giving orders about the battle. He could even see the spirit that was assigned to lead both the so-called prophets and the kings into error!

Hear this exciting prophet in action:

Then Micaiah said, "Therefore hear the word of the LORD: I saw the LORD sitting on His throne, and all the host of heaven standing by, on His right hand and on His left. And the LORD said, 'Who will persuade Ahab to go up, that he may fall at Ramoth Gilead?' So one spoke in this manner, and another spoke in that manner. Then a spirit came forward and stood before the LORD, and said, 'I will persuade him.' The LORD said to him, 'In what way?' So he said, 'I will go out and be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets.' And the LORD said, 'You shall persuade him, and also prevail. Go out and do so.'

1 Kings 22:19-23

For anyone to counsel you effectively, they must have some deep insights into the Word of God ... and the way the Word translates both in the spirit realm and in the physical.

The problems of late marriages and relationships in general have deep roots in the spiritual ... and only those who are divinely equipped through consistent prayer, fasting and holy living can successfully counsel and advise you.

I encourage singles to get in the DIY (Do-It-Yourself) mode and seek to receive divine revelations about their marriage for themselves ... directly from the Lord.

That way whatever someone else is saying will only confirm what you have received already.

Great thing about this is:

No one will be able to manipulate you.

Otherwise you could fall into the hands of pop-psychologists or even satanists masquerading as ministers of the gospel whose sole aim is to divert people out of the will of God.

Mistake #2

Spiritual ignorance and laziness

If someone is counseling you and hates fasting and prayers you should be careful.

Even if they have big church titles.

And if they do NOT know the Word of God concerning relationships, then I suggest you run away from them. No matter how popular they are.

Why?

Because in their spiritual ignorance, they will only be telling you what they think you want to hear, with little or no direct revelation from the Lord.

This is a recipe for disaster ... a classic case of the blind leading the blind that Jesus so often talked about!

Mistake #3

Falling for the 20/80 trap

Where do you suppose all the relationship advice you hear from many TV pulpits today are coming from?

Pop psychology.

Self-improvement new-age cults.

A strange admixture of Christianity and self-help ...

That is, you get 20% Christianity and 80% Eastern cult thrown into the mix!

Why?

Since most relationship experts lack fresh, timely spiritual information (like Micaiah that we just read about), they resort to filling the gap with half-truths and even downright falsehoods. Those who bother to reference Scripture at all still end up with 80% psychology and 20% spiritual advice.

Not good enough.

No relationship can stand on the basis of a mere 20% content of the Word of God.

You have to go all the way. Or find those who can help you go all the way.

Because all the secrets to successful relationships are buried deep in the Word of God.

It takes purposeful fasting and prayer to excavate them on the one hand ... and it takes the Holy Spirit to teach us how to apply them for powerful results, on the other.

SECTION 4

How To Say A Final Goodbye To The Single Life

In our Eagle Singles Community Site, we implement a 12-step blueprint to move our subscribers from single to married over the course of a few months. For some it happens within weeks, but for others it could take a while longer.

Here's a summary of the steps involved:

- Step 1: You need to deeply repent and ask the Lord for forgiveness
- Step 2: Appropriate the atoning sacrifice of the blood of Jesus
- Step 3: Identify and locate satanic entry points
- Step 4: Break and renounce all ungodly relationships and associations
- Step 5: Violently issue a bill of divorce in the spirit realm
- Step 6: Bind and cast out evil plantations from your body
- Step 7: Command evil spiritual deposit to be flushed out of your life
- Step 8: Execute judgment on stubborn powers that refuse to let you go
- Step 9: Learn to pray the magnetic prayers of the eagles – just like Abraham's servant in the Bible

What IF you decide to ignore the message in this Y! Report?

If you've read this far ... and you decide to go back to sitting on your hands, hoping against hope that everything will be miraculously sorted out ... and your godly spouse will just appear sometime in the future ...

Without you having to take any ACTION now?

Please permit me to highlight 12 dangers lurking on the highway of relationships and marriages in the 21st century.

These are the major headaches in the Christian community today ... and they are posing HUGE challenges to most congregations today.

These 12 traps have already been set in the spirit realm. They are just waiting for unsuspecting folks to walk blindly into them.

The 12 traps are:

- 1 Getting married when one or both partners have not committed their lives to Jesus.
- 2 Being put under pressure to marry as a result of accidental pregnancy
- 3 Being forced to engage in sex before the marriage proposal
- 4 Consulting with fortune tellers, mediums and false prophets about your marriage.
- 5 Getting involved with forced marriages
- 6 Retaining evil deposits in the body as a result of sexual pollution as a child or youth.

- 7 Being in a marriage sealed with evil blood covenants, whether you know it or not.
- 8 Getting married out of desperation or because one is getting older.
- 9 Getting married to an ungodly spouse (hoping to convert them to Christ later).
- 10 Getting married solely on the basis of lust and physical attraction.
- 11 Getting married out of greed and lust for material gain.
- 12 Getting married on the basis of evil prophecies and fake dreams.

Our New Community Site has been designed to preemptively strike out against these things listed above.

PLUS...

Eliminate the following anti-marriage constraints, so you will see your way clear to not only attract and recognize your God-ordained spouse ... but also to release him/her from any hidden, invisible cage that might be hindering him/her from finding YOU...

Specifically, the Community Site prayers will quickly help you to:

- 1 Repair a bad marital foundation.
- 2 break hidden anti-marriage curses, if any.
- 3 destroy inherited satanic priesthood, if any.
- 4 eliminate ungodly covenants and cancel their effects.
- 5 break off anti-marriage spells, jinxes and bewitchment.
- 6 destroy the grip of spiritual strongmen assigned to hinder godly marriages in your family line.
- 7 release you from collective family patterns, sins and evil marks.
- 8 separate you from occult and dark practices designed to hinder marriages ... in your family or environment that you might not even be aware of!
- 9 Release you (and your spouse) from the cage of evil spiritual marriages.
- 10 Wipe away the handwriting of debt and poverty from your life.
- 11 Loose you from the grip of anti-marriage infirmity.
- 12 Draw your godly spouse to you magnetically ... as you pray.

- 13 Charge up your life with the divine fire of God that attracts blessings, favor and goodness.
